

Miss Sophie Stone .

Character of Sophy Stone

Kind, open hearted and generous quick temper fond of teasing, which some people who do not know her may take for crossness. very feeling and easily loved thoroughly unselfish and very sincere in her affections not at all changeable always ready to forgive a fault very sensitive perhaps too much so.

apt to give pain by saying little things harsh but not meant any good principles would not go

Sophy Stone is certainly affectionate, sincere, steady, fond of fun, would never hurt herself with work, kind-hearted, generous, open, loving, nervous, very persevering in most things, I do not mean to say you are idle, but are not very fond of your needle. She is fond of the opposite set also, rather hasty sometimes. Remarkably
